VOL. XXI.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, MARCH 21, 1893.

NO. 6

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—The democrats of Garrard will meet next Saturday and select a new county committee.

—The local brass band has been engaged to go with the Kentucky Division Knights of Pythias to the World's Fair, in July.

—Ned Burdett, whose leg was broken by a horse throwing him, is rapidly recovering. He has been removed to his sister's, Miss Kate Burdett, in Lower Garrard.

—On April 31 the stockholders of the Richmond and Lancaster turnpike road will elect a new president and board of directors.

—"Pythianism Exposed" is the title of a lecture to be given at the courthouse Friday night, 31st, under the auspices of the local lodge K. of P.

—James A. Royston has given notice that he will apply to the next term of the Garrard county court for the druggist's license, with the privilege of selling spirituous, vinous and malt liquors on prescription.

—There was no session of the circuit court held Saturday. The machinery will again be put in motion this, Monday, morning. The case of the Commonwealth against Canon Roberts for killing Deputy Sheriff Parks, of Madison, is set for Thursday.

—The Record-Homestead in reporting the trial of Armp Rowland for the killing of Stewart, mentions Gen. Landrum as one of the counsel for the Commonwealth, when the fact is he was one of the counsel of Rowland and made the first speech in his defense.

—In the manner of parceling out of the offices of the country, Mr. Cleveland has made a new departure in the right direction. He has given it out that those who served under him during his first term are ineligible to another term. He has also decided that members of Congress are not to dictate appointments, and that the people are entitled to a hearing in regard to the selection of those who are to be their servants. It is fortunate that the people are to be recognized as having rights that are entitled to respectful consideration.

—The New York Press says, "The American people have pronounced in favor of the annexation of Hawaii in unmistakable terms." As there has been no opportunity for an expression of opinion upon the part of the people, the statement of the Press is simply an assumption based upon no tangible proof. The general impression is that Mr. Cleveland was right in withdrawing the treaty from the Senate and sending Mr. Blount to Hawaii to ascertain the facts and report. Mr. Blount is doubtless a good man, but he will have a hard time to resist the blandishments and temptations that will be thrown around him by the American ring, who are the originators of the job. They will leave nothing undone to influence his decision in their favor.

DANVILLE.

—Mr. Alex Tribble, landlord of the Gilcher House, has returned from a visit to Washington City.

—In the county court Monday George Crane was appointed a road surveyor in place of Blake Crane.

—Two mules, small boys, ran away from the Institute Saturday, when they were captured by Prof. Chrisman and brought back.

—Mr. Lewis Powell, aged about 30, died at his home near Nevada, in this county, Saturday, after a very brief illness, the exact character of which the doctors could not determine. He left a wife and several children.

—Mr. F. G. Offut will leave for Logan county next Thursday. His post-office will be Schochob, Logan county. Our citizens generally part with Mr. Offut with regret. Mr. Wm. Barbee, a native of Danville, and son of Porter Barbee, once post-master here, is in town. Since leaving Danville, 16 or 18 years ago, Mr. Barbee has lived most of the time in Denver, Col., where his father's family now is.

—Madame Sissieretta Jones, known as the "Black Patti," is making melody for the white folks at Masonic Temple, Louisville, this week.

—An enterprising fellow advertises in a New York paper that he has seven rabbit feet for sale at $1 apiece, warranted genuine left hind feet, cut from bunny at midnight in a graveyard.

—Allison Owens, who in November murdered his wife by splitting her head open with an ax while she was asleep, and then narrowly escaped death himself from cutting his throat with a razor, was given a life sentence at Albany.

—At Walton, this State, four colored women met at a store and after a few words a regular cutting affray with razors was indulged in. All of them were badly slashed. Jealousy on the part of one of the women caused the racket.

—The Cincinnati Southern railroad has been on the petition of Mr. Samuel Thomas, of New York, placed in the hands of Mr. S. F. Felton, as receiver. Mr. Thomas alleged that the road was insolvent and unable to avoid attachments.

CRAB ORCHARD.

—There was a dance at Mrs. Laura Moore's Friday night, it being Ward's birthday, and the youngsters had a good time as they generally do.

—There will be a parlor meeting of the W. C. T. U. at Mrs. W. T. Stephenson's next Friday night, 24th. The programme is as follows: Opening song, "Where are the resisters?" Recitation, "The Burners of Life," Mrs. Stephenson; Song, "Work for the night is coming;" Recitation, "Have we Grown Weary in Well Doing?" Mrs. Steger; Song, "How firm a foundation;" Recitation, "Are We Gaining?" Mrs. Hansford; Song, "Rescue the perishing;" Recitation, "Mothers' Eternal Vigilance," Mrs. W. Buchanan; Song "Have courage my boy to say no;" Recitation, "The Saloon Keepers' Fears," Walter Buchanan; Recitation, "For the Children's Sake," Mrs. Bastin.

—Thieves broke into the post-office the other night and carried out every letter, one of which was registered and contained $10. Several suspected, but nothing definitely known as to who were the rogues. Mr. Alfred Davis' smoke-house was broken into and three hams and some shoulders taken. Mrs. Will Buchanan on opening her back door Sunday morning, found that the whole top of the door was cut with a sharp instrument, leaving the entire panel loose and with a slight push it would have been easy to have entered the house from the outside. Such atrocities are getting so common that something ought to be done before more serious results follow.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—All the churches have changed the hour for their night services to 7:30.

—The meeting held at the Methodist church, Frankfort, by Dr. Bolling, of Winchester, closed with 50 additions.

—Rev. Mr. Weaver, of Campbellsville, will assist Rev. W. A. Slaymaker in a protracted meeting to begin at the Presbyterian church, to-morrow, Wednesday night.

—It is said that Rev. Geo. O. Barnes will hold a revival in the Bowling Green tabernacle, now under construction for Sam Jones' meeting, some time in April.

—Rev. Andrew Jones, an evangelist, says that Chicago is doomed to destruction more complete than pictured in the most fanciful idea of the fall of Rome, and that it will occur during the World's Fair. Rev. Jones is the colored brother who prophesied the horrible Johnstown flood. He says the only way to avoid the horrors of the future is to do like the Ninevites of old—repent in sack-cloth and ashes.

Has Resumed Payment.

The following characteristic note was received from Hon. Fontaine Fox Bobbitt yesterday:

Enclosed find $2 for my subscription. I would have sent it sooner, but I had to suspend payment about three months ago. I have resumed now and pay you first. The way to resume is to resume, as has been said in regard to specie payment. That is all very well when one has the money. This winter has literally eaten me up and has been and is now clamoring around my empty barns; although I have no barns, yet they are all empty. I shall go to Barboursville court and then you and your readers shall hear from me.

—Minnesota is to have a $2,000,000 capitol.

—Tobe, the mammoth six-ton elephant of Wallace circus, in winter quarters near Peru, Ind., was killed in an endeavor to subdue him. He was securely bound and so enraged did he become that he burst a blood vessel and died almost instantly. He was valued at $10,000.

—This is to settle it. Postmaster General Bissell has repeated the announcement that no one who held a post-office under President Cleveland's first administration will be reappointed where there is another applicant for the office. The Postmaster General says that he and not the President is responsible for this rule, which applies to all classes of post-offices and will be closely observed.

—Mrs. Henry, aged 13, the wife of a youth less than 17, broke the world's record by presenting him with three bouncing babies, Saturday. One girl, the elder, has black eyes and black, curly hair; the other girl is of light complexion, with blue eyes and light hair. The boy's eyes are blue and his hair has a beautiful tinge of red. Each of the girls weighed eight pounds and the boy seven and a half pounds at birth.

—Desperadoes attempted to rescue Jesse Jones, a prisoner, from Sheriff John Burnett, of Campbell county, Tenn., on a Knoxville and Ohio passenger train at Heil's Point, Tenn., and the sheriff was killed and Deputy John Dail probably fatally wounded and thrown from the train. Cruso E. Smith, one of the desperadoes, was mortally wounded, and Jones was injured by jumping from the train with Smith. Two of the men made their escape.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—A Pottersville, Pa. girl actually swallowed her engagement ring. She must have been fond of it.

—Herbert Hall Winslow, the dramatist, asks a divorce in the Yankton, S. D., courts from his wife, who he claims is addicted to scolding him terribly.

—A Fort Wayne, Ind., lady was granted a divorce from her husband, but while the motion for a new trial was pending she married another man. Now the case has been appealed to the supreme court and if the decision is reversed the whole thing will be in a pickle that will make things lively for somebody.

—A Nebraska man advertised for a wife. He said he wanted "a Southern girl who would be willing to demonstrate her ability to cook by preparing a meal in his presence." A Texas girl answered the advertisement. The advertiser came on and watched her cooking dinner. When she had finished they dined together and were married two hours afterward.

—Rev. Sam Jones' daughter, Miss Annie, was married for the second time to the same man last week—W. W. Graham. Several years ago the groom was private secretary of Mr. Jones and the position drew him constantly into his family. A case of love soon developed of which, however, Mr. Jones was ignorant, until his daughter and secretary eloped and were married. Some how or other their union proved unhappy and in a fit of anger the wife left her husband. The divorce courts made the separation as final as they could, but the old love, which, it appears was only sleeping, not dead, came back to both of them when they met again last fall and the result was as at first stated. Let us hope they are joined forever and aye this time.

—Ballard Smith, an old and respected citizen of the McKinney neighborhood, died Sunday of heart disease. He was a brother of Monroe Smith, of this vicinity.

—J. T. Wilson, who has been in the North Carolina penitentiary for 10 years for horse stealing, has been drawing a pension of $20 a month for the whole time.

—Logan and Walter Pedigo, two brothers, were shot and the latter dangerously wounded by Town Marshal J. F. Price, at Glasgow, while they were attempting to kill a negro.

—Mrs. Robert Fulton, wife of a prominent citizen of Allegheny, Pa., got drunk and left home a week ago and has not since been heard from. Besides her husband she left two children.

—James Walsh & Co.'s distillery, Covington, was burned, destroying about 2,000 barrels of whisky. The fire is said to have furnished a spectacle of unequalled splendor, but it cost $250,000.

—Miss Bertha Marks, of Muncie, Ind., aged 12, took rough on rats and died. The girl had been reprimanded for cutting up at school and in fun her parents threatened to send her to a school of reformation.

—"Squire Abington" — George A. Baird, the rich young English sport, and pugilist Mitchell's backer, died at New Orleans Saturday of pneumonia. Mitchell says that Baird's death will not affect his fight with Corbett.

—W. B. Shattuck, general passenger agent of the O. & M., will soon retire and devote his entire attention to the general passenger business between Cincinnati, St. Louis and Louisville. The position pays $10,000 a year.

—The best obtainable news from Washington leads to the conclusion that the great diplomatic appointments and those of the necessary assistant secretaries will go to the Senate on Thursday. Then, after confirmation, the Senate can go home.

Root and Branch.

The poison in your blood, however it may have come or whatever shape it may be taking, is cleared away by Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's a remedy that rouses every organ into healthy action, purifies and enriches the blood, and through it cleanses and invigorates the whole system. Salt-rheum, Tetter, Eczema, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Enlarged Glands, and the Scrofulous Sores and swellings, are perfectly and permanently cured by it. Unlike the ordinary Spring medicines or sassa-parilla, the "Discovery" works equally well at all seasons. All the year round and in all cases, it is guaranteed, as no other blood medicine is. If it ever fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back. You pay only for the good you get. Isn't it safer to say that no other blood-purifier can be "just as good"?

Rheumatism Quickly Cured.

Three days is a very short time in which to cure a bad case of rheumatism; but it can be done, if the proper treatment is adopted, as will be seen by the following from James Lambert, of New Brunswick, Ill.: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and got well at once." 50 cent bottles for sale by W. B. McRoberts, Druggist, Stanford, Ky.

Mother's Recommendation.

We are acquainted with many mothers in Centerville who would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house for a good many times its cost, and are recommending it every day. From personal experience we can say that it has broken up bad colds for our children—Centerville South Dakota, Citizen. 50 cent bottles for sale by W. B. McRoberts, Druggist, Stanford, Ky.

Sucklin's Anicura Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by A. K. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—Prof. C. Norris' greatest dog show on earth exhibited at the Jackson Opera House Monday night.

—Our Irish friend, O. H. Griffin, celebrated St. Patrick's day early in the morning in a magnificent manner. It is a girl.

—Col. George W. Baker, formerly of Mt. Vernon, has been strongly urged to make the race for Representative for Laurel and Rockcastle counties and will probably be a candidate.

—Tom White, of Manchester, was here Saturday. Joe Sowders, of Crab Orchard, is attending to some private business here this week. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Melvin are visiting relatives at Crab Orchard.

—At Pittsburgh, last Friday, Johnny Baxter, who has been the manager of the Baxter coal mining works, a prosperous company composed of Welshmen, was killed by his nephew, Billy Baxter. On the day before, Johnny Baxter's little boy and a little brother of Billy's had a row and when the two met words were passed between them over it. Johnny picked up a piece of iron and ran Billy some distance to a house, where Billy got a pistol and did the shooting from the doorway. The above is the best information I can get and it may be incorrect. The examining trial will be held before Judge Barnett Monday, when the facts will be learned. Johnny Baxter was the business manager of the coal company and the only man out of many who have tried who could run the business to the satisfaction of the stockholders. He was buried Sunday and was followed to his last resting place by a large number of men who worked under him and loved him well.

HUSTONVILLE.

—Some of the young ladies of town have organized a Literary Club, to meet every Tuesday evening. Miss Lizzie Bogie is president, Miss Lena Yowell vice-president, and Miss Emma Hann secretary.

—Tone Hunn and Rex Reid are in Pulaski and Wayne trading. They went out on horseback, but are expected back on cattle, and from the size of the Norman that carried Mr. Hunn, we may look out for some pretty big beaves.

—Mrs. Mary Bradley and Mr. John Good are in Louisville. Mr. Jesse Dunn arrived here yesterday from St. Louis. He and his father, Uriah Dunn, have rented the stable of D. S. Carpenter and will bring here a car-load of horses from St. Louis.

—Mr. Ed Stagz has resumed his old position at the mill. John Reid liked to have played euchre too late the other night. It was reported here yesterday that Mr. Reed, of Danville, had bought of E. H. Edwards the farm known as the Alex Moreland farm, at Moreland. Miss Beulah Van Ars Dale has been quite sick with throat trouble for several days.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—Over 1,000 sheep were killed by dogs in three nights near Gallatin, Tenn.

—The farmers are busy sowing oats now and are putting in a large crop.

—At Lexington, since Jan. 1st, 770 trotters have sold at auction for $286,075, an average of $371.

—John Jones bought of various parties in this county a bunch of butcher stuff at 2 to 2 1/2 cents.

—Wool.—I want to buy 100,000 lbs or more of wool. Will pay highest market price. A. T. Nunnally.

—George Alford bought through S. T. Harrison, Lexington, the handsome station Sentinel, by Almont Sentinel, for $925, and will make the season with him.

—The papers say that Mike Dwyer and Dick Croker have formed a partnership and will invest a large sum of money in fine thoroughbreds. Two better promoters of the thoroughbred interest could hardly be found.

—Gov. McKinney, of Virginia, has sent out an invitation to the governors of all the Southern States, to meet in convention at Richmond, April 12, to consider means for inducing immigration to the South and the development of natural resources.

—Ferdinand Thrun, of Romeo, Wis., who it was supposed was burned to death in a fire several years ago, has turned up in New Orleans. He had his life insured for $57,000 and the companies compromised with his alleged widow for $20,000.

—The silver statue of Justice which is to grace the dome of the Montana building at the World's Fair was successfully cast at Chicago. Sixteen hundred pounds of sterling silver were melted in the crucible. The statue is said to be an exact reproduction of the face as well as form of Miss Ada Rehan.

—At Pass Christian, Miss, the dead bodies of Alma Nannemarcher, daughter of a Milwaukee merchant, and Wm. B. Miller, also of Milwaukee, were found in a thicket. The girl's parents opposed her marriage to Miller, and it is supposed that he shot his sweetheart and then killed himself.

EVERY FRIDAY.

Gov. Brown's long delayed response to Ex-Gov. Buckner's strictures will disappoint those who expected that it would deal altogether in personalities. The governor ignores them, or rather says he does, declaring that it requires no courage to abuse a man holding the position of governor, the proprieties of whose position forbid that he should engage in personal controversies. He devotes himself mainly to the legal points at issue and to throwing mud at the Mason & Ford Company, who he says are "in the saddle" booted and spurred, "their contracts with the State being nothing more than 'ropes of sand' and consequently nothing can be accomplished by the suit. The governor dismisses the subject as follows: "It has been my misfortune, in my official pathway, here and there to disturb a viper—and occasionally to arouse a nest of them. I expected this. I have with perfect composure heard their hissings, but am not conscious of having been harmed by their poisonous fangs. In the sounding platitudes of Gov. B.'s letter I believe I catch familiar echoes—arousing suspicion in this matter that the voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau." In the future, as in the past, I shall be heedless of ferocious criticism and vicious opposition, and go unapologetically on, in the discharge of the solemn obligations of my official oath, doing always what I believe to be right.

For a man who starts out with the assertion that he will not deal in personalities, the above seems rather personal and it is said will provoke another response from the old war horse, though, let us hope, the rumor is without foundation. The effort of the governor to forestall or foreshadow the result of an official investigation is rather ill timed and in view of all the conditions should not have been made. Let the courts proceed untrammelled in the matter and let the public, which is tired of the crimination and recrimination, be allowed to take a rest.

SOMEHOW or somehow or other, Bro. Johnson, of the Frankfort Capital, has found out that the ladies have been wearing crinoline for some time. While crinoline and hoop skirts are synonymous in one sense, the former also means a stiffening placed in skirts to make them set out, and this is what Mr. Johnson says is worn. How he found it out though is something no fellow can understand. The long legged old sinner of the Louisville Times is not disposed to take his word for it but prefers to speak only from personal knowledge after an investigation on an exceptionally windy day. As we are liable to have that kind of a day any time in this windy month and as Fourth Avenue is an excellent place for the investigation, it is hoped that Bro. Logan will be able to settle the momentous question at once.

SHAKESPEARE was of the opinion that there is nothing in a name and that which we call a rose, by any other name would smell as sweet, but Joshua Jump, of Terre Haute, Ind., who wants to be collector of internal revenue, will take issue with the Bard of Avon if he secures the position. When he presented his application to Mr. Cleveland he received the encouraging response, "Jump is a good name for collector," which happily made Jump jump for joy and he will almost jump out of membranous integument if the president shall show forth his faith by his works and not give Jump a joke when he asks for pastry.

THE Hayseed members of the House succeeded in tacking on an amendment to the school bill requiring county superintendents in counties embracing cities of the first class to reside outside of such cities, but the reason for such requirement is veiled in obscurity, the perhaps not more so than many of the other acts of this most remarkable aggregation of curiosities who would do credit to a prehistoric age.

EX-EDITOR SAM M. GAINES, one of the brightest and best fellows that ever left the Old Dominion to find a happy home in the Blue Grass State, has been appointed private secretary to Secretary of the Treasury Carlisle. Both gentlemen are to be congratulated.

THE Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat appeared in deep mourning Friday for the wife of the editor, Mr. S. S. Cassidy, who pays a touching tribute to her memory. We sincerely sympathize with him in his terrible loss—the severest that can come to man.

REV. JASON PETTY, of Atlanta, failed to obey the injunction given in 1 Tim. 3:3, but took two. He is in jail now for bigamy and his promising career as a Methodist minister is nipped in the bud.

PAT McDONALD, of the Frankfort Argus, celebrated St. Patrick's day by printing his paper in green ink. There is, however, nothing green about Patrick.

MR. CLEVELAND was 56 Saturday. He might have celebrated the day and sent joy to the hearts of the waiting thousands by a general turning out of the rascals, but he didn't. The president seems to be unmindful of the fact that when the people voted to put him in they also voted to put every republican out and if Mr. Cleveland will obey their wishes, the hungry horde at least will rise up and call him blessed. There are enough democrats and capable ones, too, to run the government and Mr. Cleveland should put them to work p. d. q.

THE next Congress will not only have a democratic majority over all in the Senate, but will stand as follows in the House: Democrats 217, republicans 126, populists and independents 80, thus giving us 11 more than all the opposition combined and making it immaterial what cranky schemes it may present. As Gov. Brown would say, the democrats are in the saddle booted and spurred and will show the country a thing or two in the matter of reform and general reduction of expenses and taxation.

THE keeper of a fashionable bric-a-brac store in Washington realizes with unusual force that "hell hath no fury like a woman scorned." His wife had heard of his infidelity to this marriage vows and when she caught the object of her troubles in his store, she seized a stick and instead of laying it on the woman with all her might, let it loose upon the shelves and counters, breaking nearly every one of the costly articles before she could be stopped.

SENATOR HILL, whose presidential boom last spring died, a' burning, doubtless thinks that it is the early bird that catches the worm, so he will take time by the forelock and begin this fall to fix his fences for 1896. His first appearance will be in Washington State, where he will address the democratic society.

NEWSY NOTES.

—Jules Francois Camille Ferry, the celebrated French statesman, is dead.

—Howard J. Schneider was hanged in Washington for killing his wife and brother-in-law.

—A son of Ex-Secretary of War Endicott has been appointed private secretary to Attorney General Olney.

—A number of ministers, prohibitionists and one editor met at Pittsburg and launched a new political reform party.

—The contract for the work on Richmond's $100,000 government building has been awarded to a Washington City contractor.

—The large cotton thread factory of J. W. Morse, of Southeaston, Mass., was destroyed by fire at a loss of $175,000 to $200,000.

—The Senate passed the charter relating to cities of the 6th class. It fixes liquor license at not less than $150 nor more than $500.

—The steamship, Cyrus Wakefield, which has just sailed from San Francisco, was found to have two dynamite bombs in her hold.

—The second of the Watts blast furnaces at Middleboro was blown in last week and the two are now making 200 tons of pig every 24 hours.

—High School girls of Oakland, Cal., refused to read "Hamlet" from an unpurged edition, and the principal of the school sustained them.

—Carlyle Harris, the New York dude wife murderer, must sit in the electrocution chair, the court of the last resort having denied his motion for a new trial.

—John A. Thompson, a prominent citizen of Montgomery county, committed suicide by hanging himself in his barn, because he was afflicted with cancer.

—Charles W. McHenry, of McHenry, Ohio county and W. H. Griffin, of Hartford, are the first Kentucky democrats who have received post-office appointments.

—J. A. Withers, of Mercer, who on the night before dreamed that he had lost a foot in his mill, had the misfortune to lose an arm early the next morning.

—Boston suffered from another large conflagration Sunday, Tremont Temple, one of the most conspicuous buildings in the city, being gutted. A rough estimate places the loss at $375,000.

—The disabled steamer Sarnia, with about 400 people aboard, about whom there has been considerable anxiety, has arrived at Halifax, having been delayed by rough weather and a broken shaft.

—Jesse Jones, the murderer of Sheriff Burnett, of Campbell county, Tenn., at Hell's Point, Tenn., Saturday morning on a Louisville & Nashville train, was lynched at Jacksboro, Tenn., Saturday at midnight.

—A survey is to be made at once for the location of a pipe line to convey oil from the Wayne county oil field to a point on the Cincinnati Southern railroad, with the hope of making the wells a commercial success.

Just the Thing.

This is an expression the traveling public generally use when they find something that is exactly what they want. This expression applies directly to the Wisconsin Central Lines, which is now admitted by all to be "The Route" from Chicago to St. Paul, Minneapolis, Ashland, Duluth and all points in the Northwest. Their double daily train service and fine equipment offers in document which can not be surpassed. This is the only line running both through Pullman First-Class and Tourist Sleepers from Chicago to Pacific Coast Points without change. For full information address your nearest ticket agent or James C. Pond, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Chicago, Ill.

PHYSIOGNOMY.

Oblique eyes are unfavorable. They show cunning and deceit.

Irregular teeth generally indicate lack of culture and refinement.

If the forehead be shorter than the nose, the sign is of stupidity.

Very tightly closed lips are usually found in secretive characters.

An oblique mouth is a bad sign. It indicates a crooked character.

Freckles, like red hair, are an indication of an ardent temperament.

The upper part of the countenance is the seat of thought, labor and resolution; the lower half indicates action.

A forehead which in the upper part projects and in the lower sinks in toward the eye shows mental weakness.

Foreheads wrinkled in the upper part, while the lower half is smooth, generally indicate dullness and stupidity.

Noses with wrinkles on the sides, which never entirely disappear, generally belong to money getting natures.

Heavy, shaggy, overhanging eyebrows, with lower forehead prominent, show great powers of reasoning from premise to conclusion. Darwin had such brows.

When the lower half of the countenance, measuring from the nose downward, is divided by the mouth into two equal parts, seen in profile, the indication is of stupidity.

A perfectly formed face should be divided into three equal parts: from the roots of the hair to the root of the nose, thence to the tip, and from the tip of the nose to the tip of the chin.

Persons whose temples are fuller above the eyes than below, whose heads enlarge above the ears, are usually more gifted with musical taste than those with contrary characteristics.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Senator Davis is a bookworm and bibliomaniac. He is collecting works about Napoleon.

Lady Castel Stuart, who claimed to be the last direct descendant of the royal Stuarts, died at Rome recently.

The daughter of Colonel Elliott of the United States engineer corps is said to have a phenomenally accurate knowledge of the technicalities of engineering.

Mrs. Lonie McLendon Gordon is president of a literary club in Atlanta and has written letters of travel to the press. She is actively engaged in charitable work, organized and private.

Sir Harry Verney of Northumberland is one of the oldest wearers of a title in England. He was 36 years old when Victoria was crowned. His second wife was a sister of Florence Nightingale who makes her home with him.

One of the rising men in the ranks of deaf mute instructors is Walter B. Peet of the New York state institution. He is the well known coach of the Columbia college crew. Mr. Peet is 30 years old and is an authority on deaf mute and rowing matters.

Samuel E. Adams, who died in Cleveland at the age of 75 years, was one of the best criminal lawyers in Ohio in his prime. As a cross examiner he was almost without an equal in that state. His varied learning and his generosity were also notable traits.

Li Hung Chung, viceroy of China, is one of the most important people in the world, although his name is so little known over here. He is first and last a patriot, and his watchword is China and her treasures and commerce for the Chinese. He has never sought popularity; neither is he afraid of opposition.

TURF TOPICS.

Blue Bull, the famous old sire, had one eye knocked out and a knee broken from the kick of a mule.

The grand circuit for 1893 has nine members, New York and Detroit having been added to the list this year.

A German inventor has added to the harness a line which instantly closes the blinders in front, so that fractions animals cannot see at all.

Seventeen pacers have beaten 2:10, and it is strange that but one of this number is a mare, while of the nine trotters that have beaten 2:10 five of them are mares.

The two fastest trotters are Nancy Hanks, 3:04, and Stamboul, 2:07½. But there are seven pacers having records between these, and most of them race records.

At no time in the history of the American turf has the pacer been so prominent as now. Several farms in the United States are engaged in breeding him exclusively.

Kentucky Union (3), 2:13½, showed great grief recently when a jolt of the car in which she was traveling threw out a small terrier of which she had made a companion and friend.

This year Chicago will have one of the grandest race meetings ever held. The Northwestern Association of Trotting and Racing Horse Breeders will give a $100,000 meeting at Washington park Sept. 4 to 16.

THE LATEST WHIMS.

New saltcellars are heart shaped. Combination services for convenience at 5 o'clock teas and late impromptu suppers are useful.

A tea caddy is shaped like an ancient vase with double handles and has a band of raised work girding the body.

Cut glass cologne bottles are low and have silver stoppers that are high and look like the crowning of a minaret.

The scimitar seems the favorite shape for the paper knife. The envelope cutters and paper markers are also scimitar shaped and very pretty in filigree.

The enameled ware in silver gilt deserves all praise. Its beauty is only half appreciated until it is held up to the light, when it has the transience of stained glass and looks like imbedded jewels.—Jewelers' Circular.

The woman who says mean things about women is a person to beware of.

The Association of Working Girls' Societies deserves all praise for much that it has done, but for nothing more than for organizing the Choral union. The object of this union is to give a thorough course in reading music to all working girls who desire it. The union has already given some concerts. Few of the young ladies had any knowledge of music at the start, yet many of them are learning rapidly to sing music from the notes at sight. It is a noble undertaking. America lags behind in popular musical culture, and these fine working girls are doing more than anybody else to bring it up.

Dr. Caroline S. Pease is a member of the examining board of the New York state civil service commission. She is the first woman in New York to hold such an office.

There is no country in civilization where a wife is allowed her share of the family income. She is dependent on the charity of her husband for every cent. Every mother and housekeeper ought to have regular wages for taking care of the household and the children, and this ought to be established by law. Her wages should come out of the money earned by the husband. Her work is fully as important as his, and she gets nothing for it. I have known men with an income of $10,000 a year who never gave their wives any money.

Through the temperance organizations and the societies of the King's Daughters women and girls are learning, parliamentary usage all over the country, and becoming good extempore speakers and presiding officers as well.

The more intelligent a man or woman is the more liberal will he or she be on the woman question. This is a sure way to tell how much anybody knows.

People now living, well on in years at that, will see women governors, senators, representatives, mayors, councilmen, judges and jurymen.

"Captain Lettagblair," by Marguerite Merington, has proved one of the most successful plays ever written in America. It has an exquisite sparkle and finish that render it most attractive.

Denmark has a remarkable woman violin player, too—Frida Scotta.

Guaranteed Cure.

We authorize our advertisement to sell you Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, upon this condition: If you are afflicted with a Cough, Cold or any Lung, Throat or Chest Trouble and will use this remedy according to directions, giving it a fair trial and experience no benefit, you may return the bottle and have your money refunded. We could not make this offer if we did not know that Dr. King's New Discovery could be relied upon. It never disappoints. Trial bottles free at A. R. Penny's drugstore. Large size 50c and $1.

A Leader.

Since its first introduction, Electric Bitters has gained rapidly in popular favor until now it is clearly in the lead among pure medical tonics and alteratives—containing nothing which permits its use as a beverage or intoxicant; it is recognized as the best and purest medicine for all ailments of the Stomach, Liver and Kidneys. It will cure Sick Headache, Indigestion, Constipation and drive Malaria from the system. Satisfaction guaranteed with each bottle or the money will be refunded. Price only 50 cents per bottle. Sold by A. R. Penny, Druggist.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Cholera in Pennsylvania.

Swickley, Penn. We had an epidemic of cholera, as our physicians called it, in this place lately and I made a great hit with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I sold four dozen bottles of it in one week and have since sold nearly a gross. This Remedy did the work and was a big advertisement for me. Several persons who had been troubled with diarrhoea for two or three weeks were cured by a few doses of this medicine. P. P. Knapp, Ph. G., 25 and 30 cent bottles for sale by W. B. McKibbert, Druggist, Stanford, Ky.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Miss MOLLIE CABLE is visiting Mrs. J. W. Ramsey.
Mr. CHARLEY FOWLER continues very ill of fever.
Capt. R. D. THOMPSON has moved his family to Brodhead.
Miss MATTIE PAXTON went to Louisville yesterday to visit friends.
Mrs. E. J. WALLER, of Shawnee, Tenn., is with her sister, Mrs. Susan Harris.
Mrs. DR. COOPER, of the East End, has been the guest of Mrs. W. R. Dillion.
Mr. MATT WOODSON and wife, of Middleboro, are down on a visit to friends.
Miss LAZZIE WITHERS has gone to Lexington to take a position in an infirmity.
Miss FLORA BALLOU is visiting her brother, Humphrey Ballou, in Lancaster.
Hon. G. A. LACKEY is back from a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Field, in Fayette.
Mr. and Mrs. T. B. MEALS and son returned Sunday from a visit to Louisville.
Mr. L. M. LASLEY, who is training horses at Lexington, is at home for a few days.
Mr. J. B. OWENS, of Harrodsburg, spent Sunday with his brother, Mr. S. M. OWENS.
W. B. BURKE, of the Junction City L. & N. office, has been working several days in the office at Rowland.
Mr. JAMES MILBURN has rented the house on Danville avenue, advertised in this paper by Mrs. Bettie P. Alford.
Mr. J. W. GIVENS returned from Jellison yesterday, where he had been to see his daughter, Miss Lottie, who is attending school there.
PATTON PARROTT, of Lexington, joined his brother, J. W. Parrott, here. They had not met in 23 years and neither had any recollection of the other.
The current issue of the Pineville Messenger has a picture of our former townsman, Mr. Ed. H. Jones together with a short "obituary" of him.
Miss MINNIE DUNWIDDIE has gone to Louisville to go into the millinery business and Miss Mattie Diddie to Gadsden, Ala., to take charge of a millinery store there.
Mrs. FLORENCE T. COURTS left for Cincinnati yesterday to buy a complete line of millinery, which she will display in the rear of the post-office room, which has been fitted up for the purpose.
Miss SUE ROUNT was sworn in as assistant post-master yesterday to help Miss Edie Warren during Mrs. Courts' absence. It may be that she is in the office to stay. Her friends hope so, at least.
Mr. H. B. HACKLEY, who is assisting in the depot here, is an applicant for Consul at Monterey, Mexico, where he has been in business for some time, and has good prospects of getting it.
Mr. J. B. GILKESON was on yesterday's train returning from Washington, where he went to file his papers for Consul to Leith, Scotland, 60 miles from his old home at Glasgow. He thinks his chances good and we hope so.
Mrs. R. C. ENGLEMAN, who has a very severe operation performed in Lexington a couple of weeks ago, was brought home Saturday. Although in a very critical condition she stood the trip very well. Her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Hundley, who has been with her, came over and is still here.
The Misses OWSEY were prevented from attending the hop, to which they were preparing to go, by a telegram from Nashville saying their sister, Miss Emma, was very ill. Miss Maggie left by the first train for her bedside.
LATER.—A second dispatch said Miss Emma was worse and her father, Hon. J. S. Owsley, Sr., left at noon yesterday for Nashville.
MR. ALBERT SEVERANCE, of Stanford, was here Sunday. Mr. Severance, we understand, is quite a frequent visitor to our town, but so quietly does he come and go with the knowledge only of one "fair one" we cannot always give him a personal.—Lancaster Record-Homestead. We publish the above to let Mr. Severance's home girl see that he is playing a double game, so to speak.

CITY AND VICINITY.

McKINNEY BROS. have just received a nice line of bird cages.
DAUGHTER'S COLLEGE sold for $13,255, instead of $20,000 as the types made us say.
Buy your seed Irish potatoes of W. H. Wearen & Co., and get the best at the lowest price.
ALL persons indebted to the old firm of B. K. & W. H. Wearen must call and settle. We are compelled to close our old accounts.
GENTLEMEN, we have the tastiest and cheapest line of clothing ever offered in Stanford. Come and see for yourselves. Hughes & Tate.
A FIELD connection on the electric light service broke Saturday night and threw us into outer darkness for an hour or two, making us realize more fully the blessings we have. Engineer B. F. Rount fixed the break and the light shone again with its accustomed brilliancy.

New barrel of sheep dip at McKinney Bros.
See our new spring wraps. Severance & Son.
New satteens and satin glorias. Severance & Son.
HEINZ's apple butter and preserves at McKinney Bros.

THE Bank reports were crowded out of this issue, but will appear Friday.

Look at Danks' pretty Easter window and go inside for some choice jewelry.

ELEGANT stock gingham, percale, &c. Come early while our assortment is complete. Severance & Son.

The finest line of carpets ever brought to the city. Come and see them. We will save you money. Hughes & Tate.

I will have a full line of millinery open ready for the trade next Monday, March 27. Call and see it. Mary Davies Dudderar. Mrs. Kate Dudderar, Manager.

The tax payers raised by the supervisors seem as a general thing to think that they are right, as but few appeared yesterday to show cause why they should not be raised.

HAVE you seen our satteens, zephyr gingham, pongees, pine apple cloths, serges, French poplins, bengalines, etc., etc.? It will pay you to look at them. Hughes & Tate.

Mrs. KATE DUDDERAR secured the services of an accomplished dress maker, Mrs. W. T. Beard, while in the city and she can be found in the millinery ready to serve the ladies in all the new designs.

I AM receiving my Spring and Summer suitings now and invite the people hereabouts to call and see the handsomest line of goods ever brought to Stanford. Call early and get first choice. H. C. Ruple.

DR. OWSEY has just completed for Mack Huffman a warehouse in the rear of his store, 18x52, two stories high, weatherboarded with corrugated iron and covered with steel. It will be used for storing undertaker's goods.

THE weather Friday cut all kinds of dikes, ending in quite a snow storm that night. Saturday was windy and cheerless, till the afternoon, when it cleared off, since which fair and pleasant weather has prevailed. Light rains, warmer, are the forecasts for to-day.

ELEGANT lines of spring and summer fabrics for men's made-to-order clothing suits from Browning, King & Co., New York, Jacob Reed's Sons, Philadelphia, and The Royal Tailors, Chicago, on sale by John H. Craig & Son, at popular prices. A perfect fit guaranteed.

ALTHOUGH Ed Brown and Robert Hansford are wearing stripes in the Frankfort penitentiary, their spirit goes marching on in their old stamping ground. M. F. Elkin's butcher shop was entered Sunday night, but the thief had only trouble for his pains and got only a few coppers from the till.

I. N. COCHRAN, a Casey county farmer, went to Louisville to sell his tobacco crop. He got $1,100 and putting it in his inside pocket started out to see the town. A slick citizen fell in with him and began to talk of people in Casey and claimed that he was well acquainted there. Like the average hayseed sucker, Cochran bit at the hook and was soon hale fellow well met with his new found companion. They visited the usual resorts, taking in among other things the gilded palaces of sin. Finally at a late hour they retired at a boarding house and when the Casey county man waked up next morning his companion was not there and so was his wallet, and both have since eluded his grasp. Mr. Cochran evidently doesn't read the newspapers or he would not have had to learn by sad experience that things are not always what they seem and that bunco men are a mighty "onsartin" kind of cusses to run against.

DEATH FROM MORPHINE.—Porter C. Waters, son of George R. and Rhoda Waters, died Friday night from the effects of an over-dose of morphine. Some five weeks ago, he had a light stroke of paralysis and for two weeks there was not the least bit of feeling in either leg from the feet to the knees. He recovered partially and got out of bed too soon, and though stirring around, suffered at times excruciating pain, to alleviate which he had been using morphine for several days. He was a bright and obedient boy, about 19 years of age, ambitious and always cheerful. His parents and relatives are crushed almost beyond endurance by this sudden loss of their beloved boy. After a funeral service at his father's residence in Danville by his pastor, Rev. J. W. Lynch, the remains were interred in Buffalo Cemetery here Sunday, in the presence of a large number of friends who had accompanied the body from Danville and a good many from this place. Rev. J. W. Lynch made a short, but touching prayer, and a quartette composed of Misses Minnie Bronaugh and Maggie Sallee and Messrs. Harris and West very beautifully sang "Go Bury Thy Sorrow." The death falls particularly heavy on the father, who has been at the bedside of his own father for weeks and who is expected to die at any time.

COL. WM. O'CONNELL BRADLEY, the leading republican of the State, entertained a number of his professional and a few other friends at his handsome home in Lancaster Saturday in celebration of his 45th birthday and those who were fortunate enough to be present will long remember it. A royal dinner was served in a number of courses. It embraced nearly everything that heart could wish, in season and out of season, and discussed with the wine accompaniments it was heartily enjoyed. The feast of good things was scarcely exceeded by that feast of reason and flow of soul which is always brightened by the champagne and the sherry. It was a rare occasion of good cheer and general enjoyment and when the happy party drank for the stenth time to the health of its honored host in departing it was with a sincere hope that he might live to celebrate many more birthdays and that all of those then present would be there to see.

Col. Bradley is splendidly fixed to enjoy life. He is the soul of unostentatious hospitality, has a real gem of a home, a loving wife, a fond old mother and a lovely daughter, and enjoying the full confidence and respect of his neighbors, his lines are indeed cast in pleasant places, where we hope he may be permitted to enjoy them to a ripe old age.

AFTER several days' trial of the application of Sherod A. Coyle for distiller's license, Judge Varnon refused to grant it, as the number of protestants exceeded those in favor of it. The case created much excitement in the neighborhood, the most of whose citizens were greatly opposed and justly so, to have a man who has shown such disregard of the law, licensed to continue the sale of liquors. There are already a score of indictments against him.

ANDERSON CARR was before Police Judge Carson, yesterday, charged with selling whisky without license. His attorney, Hon. W. H. Miller, attempted to have the case dismissed because the ordinance providing the punishment was not in conformity with law and its enforcement would not be a bar to further prosecution, but the court ruled against him. Then as a last resort he denied the existence of any ordinance at all for the offense, because it had never been signed by the mayor. This proved to be true and Carr was discharged.

THE hop at Walton's Opera House Friday night was not very largely attended, but those who were present enjoyed it greatly. The ladies were outnumbered by the gentlemen nearly two to one and each was of consequence a veritable belle of the ball. The only unpleasant incident of the evening occurred at a late hour in one of the dressing rooms. An uninvited guest, bearing the euphonious patronymic of Smith, who hails from Boyle and looked like he had on a false face and wig, made an insulting remark about the ladies which Gabe Lackey very promptly and properly resented and would have "put a head on him" but for the interference of those who were called to the scene. The fact that he was drunk is not a palliation but an aggravation of the offense and if the manager hadn't happened to have been out at the time, Smith would have been taught a lesson by spending the rest of the night in jail. Our boys are always ready and willing to entertain strangers but that class of cattle who get drunk and misbehave must give us a wide berth.

TWO KILLED.—Robert Martin, better known as "Old Man Bob," to distinguish him from the other two Bob Martins on the road, was thrown from No. 30 freight train Saturday, near Parksville, and literally ground to pieces by the car wheels. He was about 55 years of age, unmarried and lived in Louisville. For a long time he had been braking on the Main line and was on this division in that capacity learning the road before being promoted to conductor. The second man killed was E. Bart Baker, also a brakeman. He was on a freight train Sunday going to Corbin on private business and while standing in the door of the caboose as it was going up Cedar Creek hill he was jerked off and falling upon his head, his neck was broken and he died in an instant. He was some 23 years of age and was a fine musician. His father, P. T. Baker, now lives in Knox county. He was in Cooper & Jackson's circus band and when it showed in Hustonville ten years ago he decided to leave it and settle there, where he lived for several years. The remains of young Baker were brought here and prepared for interment by Undertaker Huffman, after which they were taken to Rowland and yesterday were interred in Buffalo Cemetery.

Singing to the Tired.
Some cowboys and cattlemen laughingly assured me that they only sing on watch to keep themselves awake; others say they sing, talk loud or make a noise just to let the cattle know they are approaching so as not to frighten and stampede them, but the greater number hold, as I myself had read and been led to believe, that the sound of the human voice, singing, talking or calling out cheerfully, quietly and reassures the animals. However it may be, they all sing and talk or whistle to them, and among my most vivid and picturelike recollections is one of a certain night when an aching head and heavy heart held me awake, and slipping from the house in the little hours I went aimlessly across the level plain toward where a big herd was camped.
When within 300 or 400 yards of the bunch, I could see, under the white Texas moonlight, the dark mass of cattle and occasionally a silhouette, between me and the sky, of one of the guards on his pony, and in the intense loneliness of the plain's night the singing of the one boyish voice holding his untaught, unconscious way through "A Fountain Filled With Blood," and the whistling of his companion on a little harmonicon "Sweet Home," as they came round past me in turn, were as lovely and touching sounds as I ever heard.—Kansas City Times.

Parian Marble.
It has often been said that the Parian marble was exhausted by the ancients, but such is not the case. The chief Athenian sculptor of today, Mr. Brontos, uses it commonly for his finer work, though he also uses the Penteclee marble for large statues and groups. The Parian is whiter, the Penteclee inclining to gray. The latter is sandy and gritty as compared with the Parian, while the defect of the Parian marble is its larger crystalline character, especially if it is not carefully quarried. The best of the modern quarries are free from this fault, and it is this which Professor Brontos uses. His reliefs of the "Twelve Gods"—all exceedingly beautiful, and particularly the "Pallas" and "Mars"—are carved in slabs of the most transparent Parian marble.

There is now a chance for some energetic American to "corner" all the Parian marble in the world, except that which has left the quarry and been carved into statues, temples, etc. An islander of Paros, who owns the marble mountain, wishes to sell it subject to a lease, which is not likely to be operative, because the leasing parties have exhausted themselves in building tracks, elevators and such things to get the marble out and do not seem to have capital enough to go on with the work of quarrying.—Boston Advertiser.

A Story of Baron Reinach.
A Paris correspondent tells a good story of the late Baron de Reinach. Some time before the baron's tragic demise a friend of his gave him a friend's house, and he was among the invited guests. During the early part of the evening every one was astonished by the vagaries of a visitor who had donned the cap and bells and "fooled it" so cleverly as to attract general attention. Every one was anxious to know who it was, but he declined to reveal his identity. When the time came to throw off the masks, to the astonishment of all it was seen to be M. de Reinach.

Starting a Fashion.
It is a caprice of the moment with a certain set of girls who strive for fads and eccentricities to omit all punctuation marks in their letters. Probably some one who couldn't put them in started the fashion, just as a girl at the opera a few years ago found that a sore finger throbbed and ached desperately if her hand lay on her lap and was much relieved when she held it upright. So she sat all the evening in a conspicuous box with one slender gloved hand touching her cheek, with the result of making the attitude a marked and raging fashion that entire season.—New York Times.

Mrs. Lynn Linton's Ideas of Plays.
Mrs. Lynn Linton, who has been called an Addison in petticoats, is a great lover of the theater and owns to liking best the play that amuses when the villain comes to grief and the good girl marries the hero. She calls plays "fairy tales for grownups" which serve a gracious purpose in diverting us from life's tragedies. "In an earlier age we needed tragedies on the stage; life was then so much fuller of Maypole dancing. Today we live out our tragedies and turn to the stage for our Maypole dancing as lookers on, because we are not free to join in the dance."

Deaf Persons and the Telephone.
Professor Lannons of Lyons says that persons whose organ of hearing is not perfectly sound should avoid the telephone, as even in a comparatively robust organ its continuous use is followed by symptoms more or less grave—cephalgia, vertigo, hyperaesthesia, insomnia and sometimes psychical disturbances of a character which might become chronic.

Conscience Money Sent to Stanford.
Town Treasurer Robert Swartwout of Stanford, Conn., recently received an anonymous letter postmarked New York enclosing a $1,000 treasury note. The letter reads, "Please put this $1,000 to the credit of Stanford taxes of 1879." The letter was not registered, and no one has any idea of the identity of the sender. It is supposed to be conscience money.

The Man Who Knew Blaine.
The man who knew Blaine is out in force these days. He is as proud as the father of a pair of twins.
He is seen in all public places. He will take you in a corner, after he has shaken hands, and in a sorrowful tone of voice say: "So Blaine is gone? Too bad, too bad. It is the greatest calamity that has befallen our diplomatic service since the death of Mr. Clay."
"Yes, yes," you say, by way of assent.
"Let me see," says the man who knew Blaine, quizzically closing an eye as though it was a task to remember. "Let me see, I was at the hotel at dinner one day, and who should sit next to me but Mr. Blaine."
"Is that so?"
"Well, I guess. Mr. Blaine held quite a conversation with me. He said to me—oh, I shall never forget his words—he said to me—he said—"
"What did he say?"
"He asked me to pass the butter."—New York Herald.

Awkward Things to Forget.
Your purse, after you have asked you "best girl" and her mother out to dine.—Scribner's Magazine.

He Knew the Story.
"Supposing," said an upholstery dealer to a candidate for a vacant position, "that a lady came in and asked you if you had any chenille curtains, what would you say?"
The new man smiled a ghastly smile. Imagining the scene and drawing a long breath, he started in. "Yes, ma'am," says he, "we keep chenille curtains. This way, please. Here's something rather handsome. You don't like the pattern, eh? Something in smaller? Ah, yes. This way, please. Brighter, eh? Yes, ma'am. This way, please. There you are. A doorway, I see, and with a little red in it."

"As I understand you, then, you wish a small figure chenille with a little red in it. How's that—$8.50? Too high? Something cheaper, eh? With a dado and wide as possible. Something for about $4.50?"
"As I understand you, then, you wish a small figure chenille bright with a bit of red in it—$4.50 chenille curtain, wide and with a dado? That's as near as I can come to it. Not enough individuality, eh? How's this one? Not sufficiently forceful in its pensiveness, eh? Something to harmonize with a sage green rug that your dog lies on and combine with the flare from an open grate—something moody and thoughtful, eh? Something suggestive of repose?"
"As I understand you, then, you wish a small figure, bright with a bit of red, $4.50 chenille curtain, for a doorway, wide and with a dado, with a beery, sleepy, don't-wake-me-up-till-morning sort of a style about it, to harmonize with a pug nosed pup and a conflagration? Let us start all over again, ma'am."

Proper Wifely Pride.
Neighbor (making a call)—I often wish my husband took as much interest in what's going on as yours does. When I want to find out anything, I have to hunt up the papers and read it myself.
Mrs. Nextdoor—Yes, Alfred's always well posted. I do believe he knows the politics of every man in this ward, and how much he's worth, and where he came from, and all about him. You'll excuse me for about five minutes, Mrs. Walkabout, won't you? I've got to go out and split some kindling and bring in a few buckets of coal.—Chicago Tribune.

His Address.
An Englishman, a temperance lecturer, was invited to speak on total abstinence. Being nobody in particular, he was placed last on the list of speakers. The chairman also introduced several speakers whose names were not on the list, and the audience were tired out when he said, "Mr. Bailey will now give us his address."
"My address," said Mr. Bailey, rising, "is 45 Loughborough park, Brixton road, and I wish you all good night."—Youth's Companion.

What He Meant.
One of the neighbors' little boys was going to a fancy dress party last night in the guise of a medieval lord of high degree. In the afternoon he came running in next door with the announcement: "Oh, Miss S—, you oughter see the things I'm going to wear to the party to-night! There's a doublet an hose, an a big hat with a feather in, an a gold chain, an a cloak lined with velvet!" He probably meant ermine.—New York Tribune.

Boycotting a Parson.
A Leeds gossip writes: "An amusing story comes from 'Aberdeen awa' where the minister of a certain kirk has incurred the displeasure of his congregation by wearing scarlet socks in church. He has been remonstrated with on the vanity of such bright colors, but remains immovable, and his congregation are in the meantime severely boycotting him until he relinquishes the red hose."—London Tit-Bits.

Might He Worse.
Crummer—Why, you have a cold, haven't you?
Gilleland—Sh-h-h! Don't tell any-w-oh. De cold ish bad enough without gettin cures foh it! Ker-choo! ker-choo! at ker-choo!—Truth.

An American Comedy Probably.
Mr. Firstnight—Is everything full already? Haven't you even one seat for me?
Cashier—Don't be troubled. If you will wait till the second act, there will be plenty of room.—Texas Siftings.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF STANFORD, KY.

Capital Stock.....$200,000

Surplus.....20,500

Attention of the public is invited to the fact that this is the First National Bank in Stanford. Under the provisions of the National Bank Act, depositors are secured not only by the capital stock, but by the stockholders' liability for an amount equal to the stock so that depositors of this institution are secured by a fund of $400,000. Five sworn statements of the condition of the bank are made each year to the United States government and its assets are examined at stated times by government agents, thus securing additional and perfect safety to depositors.

This institution, originally established as the Deposit Bank of Stanford in 1858, then re-organized as the National Bank of Stanford in 1865 and again re-organized as the First National Bank of Stanford in 1880, has had practically an uninterrupted existence of 32 years. It is better supplied now with facilities for transacting business promptly and liberally than ever before in its long and honorable career. Accounts of corporations, Educators, firms and individuals respectfully solicited.

The Directory of this Bank is composed of
T. J. Foster, of Stanford;
Forester, Reid, Lincoln county;
J. W. Hayden, Stanford;
J. S. H. Baughman, Lincoln;
